A. The Board hereby retains and reserves unto itself, without limitations, all powers, rights, authorities, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it prior to the signing of this Agreement by the Laws and Constitution of the State of New Jersey and of the United States including, but without limiting, the generality of the foregoing, the following rights:

1. The executive management and administrative control of the Library and its properties and facilities and the activities of its employees while on duty.

2. To hire all employees and subject to the provision of law, including the Department of Personnel, to determine their qualifications and conditions for continued employment or assignment and to promote and transfer employees.

3. To suspend, demote, discharge or take other disciplinary action for good and just cause according to law, including the Department of Personnel.

4. To determine the staffing needs of the Library.

5. To determine the hours of operation.

6. To evaluate employee performance.

B. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authorities, duties and responsibilities of the Board, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations, and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific express terms of this Agreement and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformance with the Constitution and Laws of New Jersey and of the United States.

C. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to deny or restrict the Board's powers, rights, authorities, duties, and responsibilities under N.J.S.A. 40, 40A and N.J.S.A. 11A or any other national, state, county, or local laws or ordinances.

ARTICLE III

NON-DISCRIMINATION

A. There shall be no discrimination, interference, or coercion by the Board or any of its agents against the employees represented by the Association because of membership or activity in the Association. The Association or any of its agents shall not intimidate or coerce employees into membership. Neither the Board nor the Association shall discriminate against any employees because of race, creed, color, age, sex, or national origin.

B. It is hereby recognized and agreed that an employee shall have the right to withdraw from membership in the Association. In the exercise of that right, neither party, nor any of its agents, shall discriminate, coerce or otherwise interfere with the employee.

ARTICLE IV

MAINTENANCE OF WORK OPERATIONS

A. The parties agree that there shall be no lock-outs, strikes, work stoppages, job actions, or slowdowns during the life of this Agreement. No officer or representative of the Association shall authorize, instigate, or condone such activity, nor shall any employee participate in such activity.

B. It is understood that violation of the provisions of this Article may subject any employee participating in or condoning such activity to disciplinary action by the Board. Such disciplinary action may include termination of employment, or any other appropriate lesser form of discipline.

ARTICLE V

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, an equitable solution to the problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions of employment under this Agreement.

B. Nothing herein shall be construed as limiting the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the Department.

C. The term "grievance" as used herein means an appeal by an individual employee or the Association on behalf of an individual employee or group of employees, from the interpretation, application or violation of this Agreement.

D. The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this Agreement, and shall be followed in its entirety unless any step is waived by mutual consent:

Step 1. The aggrieved or the Association shall institute the grievance, in writing (letter or email) to the Director of the Library describing the nature of the grievance, the factual basis and the provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated, within ten (10) calendar days of the event giving rise to the grievance. Absent mutual written consent to enlarge the time period, failure of the grievant or the Association to initiate a written grievance within the aforesaid time period shall be deemed a waiver of the grievance. The Director may conduct a discussion with the grievant and the Association, at which the Director may have such other management representatives present as the Director may determine.

Step 2. If no agreement can be reached within ten (10) calendar days after submission of the grievance to the Director, or in the event the Director shall fail to respond within said ten (10) day period, the grievant or the Association may submit the grievance, in writing, to the Library Board within ten (10) calendar days thereafter. Absent mutual written consent to enlarge the time period, failure of the grievant or the Association to submit the written grievance to the Library Board within the aforesaid time period shall be deemed a waiver of the grievance. The Library Board shall have thirty (30) calendar days in which to render a decision on the grievance in writing. Copies of the written decision shall be provided to the grievant, the Association and the Director.

Step 3(a). If the grievant or the Association is dissatisfied with the decision of the Library Board, or should the Library Board fail to issue a written decision within said thirty (30) day period, unless there is a mutual written consent to enlarge the time period, the grievant or the Association may, within ten (10) working days following receipt of the Board's written decision or within ten (10) working days following the expiration of thirty (30) days following receipt of the written grievance by the Board, whichever first occurs, refer the grievance to the Public Employment Relations Commission for the selection of an arbitrator. Failure of the grievant or the Association to refer the written grievance to the Public Employment Relations Commission within the aforesaid time period shall be deemed a waiver of the grievance. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties. The expenses of such arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties.

(b) The Arbitrator shall have no authority to add to or subtract from the Agreement.

(c) In no event shall a complaint as indicated in (b) above or any other matter not pertaining to the specific contents of this Agreement be submitted to or considered by an Arbitrator.

(d) It is agreed between the parties that no arbitration hearing shall be held until the expiration of at least thirty (30) days after the decision rendered by the Library Board on the grievance. Further, it is the intent of the parties that no matter in dispute that is subject to review and/or the decision of the Department of Personnel of the State of New Jersey may be submitted to arbitration. The parties herein direct the Arbitrator not to accept or to decide any matter in dispute that is subject to Department of Personnel review and decision.

E. Any employee covered by this Agreement shall have the right to process his/her own "grievance" or complaint through Step Three-Arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Article. However, in the event the Association declines to pursue the matter to arbitration and the individual employee wishes to so proceed, such employee shall bear the expense of such arbitration equally with the Board.

F. The time limits expressed herein shall be strictly adhered to. If any "grievance" or complaint has not been initiated within the time limits specified, then it shall be deemed to have been abandoned. If any "grievance" or complaint is not processed to the next succeeding step in the Grievance Procedure within the time limits prescribed therefore, then the disposition at the last preceding step shall be deemed to be conclusive. If a decision is not rendered within the time limits prescribed for decision at any step in the Grievance Procedure, then it shall be deemed to have been denied. Nothing herein shall prevent the parties from mutually agreeing to extend or contract the time limits provided for processing the "grievance" or complaint at any step in the Grievance Procedure.

G. The Association may file a grievance at any of the Steps in paragraph "D" except that the Association shall not proceed directly to arbitration without filing a grievance at one of the "in-house" steps.
